Break rooms across America hold signs that read: “Your mother doesn’t work here.” The new display “All Work, No Pay” examines just that: the implied expectation that women will take care of the housework. The display shows that despite making steps forward in the paid labor force, women continue to be responsible for the almost-timeless and undeniably endless unpaid work at home.

If you didn't pay into the scheme you probably won't be entitled to a pension benefit. If you left the employer between April 1975 and April 1988, you will have a pension, provided you had completed five years in the scheme. If not, you will almost certainly have had a refund of your pension contributions and have no further rights.
