Rondo is an instrumental form that was popular in the late 18th to early 19th centuries. A rondo has the main theme (usually in the tonic key) which is restated several times as it alternates with other themes. There are two basic patterns of a rondo: ABACA and ABACABA, in which the A section represents the main theme.

Updated July 07, 2018. The 20th century is described as the " age of musical diversity " because composers had more creative freedom.
Composers were more willing to experiment with new music forms or reinvent music forms of the past. They also took advantage of the resources and technology that were available to them.
